DIVORCE LAWS IN FGYPT .- A wife in Egypt may be divorced twice and return to her husband, but if he divorce her a third time, and with a triple divorce declared, and send her away, he triple divorce declared, and send her away, he cannot live with her again until she has been one month married to another man. After the third divorce the husband must pay the part of the dower which was set aside for the wife before marriage, and he must support her out of his house during the three months in which she may not marry again. If the wife be separated from the man, and not divorced she receives a weekly allowance from him. A divorced woman may, after divorce, retain her son, under two years of age, and custom gives the child to the mother till it is seven years old; then the father must claim the son. When a man forfeits an engagement to many he must pay the woman half her dower, and she is free to marry at once. When a wife is disubedient, the husband may beat her; if she persists in disobedience, he may take her with two witnesses, not his relations, to the court, and declare against her, and if she does not promise to be obedient thereafter, he is not obliged to feed, lodge or clothe her, but need not divorce her; and if he suspects that she desires to be divorced in order to remarry, he surely will not. If she confesses her wrong and promise obedience, he must at once divorce her or take her home. If a wife does not wish to live with her husband, she enters a complaint against him at the court, stating that her family will support her, and mak a demand for separation. If the women of the same harem, or of different once, quarrel and are complained of to the court, their husbands are punished by the court; but we may be, sure that their vicarious correction does not save the poor women from chastisement. The husband divorces the wife, but the wife cannot divorce the husband. cannot live with her again until she has been one

Washington, D. C. General Manager, CHAS. W. CUNNINGHAM, Hackberry, Arizona,

The capital stock of this company is $625,000, divided into 625,000 shares of $1 each.

The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia, and the stock is non-assessable, and carries with it no personal liability to the holder.

THE GOLD MINING COMPANY (location Music Mountains, A. T.) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.

There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment. For full information in regard to this Mine apply to the
